CITY HALL
Santa Rosa, New Mexico

3.25

Located on the banks of the Pecos River, Santa Rosa is the seat of Guadalupe County. This is a trading center for Ranchers, and a shipping point for livestock and wool. U. S. Highway 66 - Main route of America - also makes this a city that caters to the traveler, with many fine motels and restaurants to make your stay enjoyable. South of here, at Puerto De Luna, is where Coronado is said to have built a bridge in 1541.
